National White Collar Crime Center Honors the Texas State Securities Board

Richmond, VA — The Texas State Securities Board was recently honored by the National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C) for outstanding accomplishments and support of NW3C's sponsored training, support services, projects, events and partnerships. Presentation of the NW3C Member Agency Award for Excellence was part of the quarterly Board of Directors' meeting in Providence, Rhode Island on October 26, 2006. NW3C Board Chairman Glen B. Gainer, III, presented this award to Ms. Denise Crawford, Securities Commissioner, who accepted on behalf of the Texas State Securities Board. The Texas State Securities Board has been an active and valuable member of NW3C since February of 1994.

About the National White Collar Crime Center
