

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 30, 2008

CONTACT:

Craig Butterworth

Phone: (804)-967-6208 ext. 3355

Fax: (804) 217-5665

Email: cbutterworth@nw3c.org

NW3C HOSTS 2008 SUMMIT ON ECONOMIC AND HIGH-TECH CRIME

RICHMOND, VA The National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C) will host its 12th annual Economic and High-Tech Crime Summit at the Cook Convention Center in Memphis, TN October 6-8.

“Real Crimes in Virtual Worlds” is the theme of this year’s Summit which will feature a group of presenters whose expertise runs the gambit from economic fraud to cell phone forensics. Actor Erik Estrada, who is a tireless supporter of law enforcement, will serve as this year’s keynote speaker. For a complete list of speakers and session topics, visit the official Web site at <http://summit.nw3c.org>.

About NW3C

A congressionally-funded, non-profit organization, NW3C provides a national support network for state and local law enforcement agencies involved in the prevention, investigation and prosecution of economic crime, cybercrime and terrorism. For more information, please visit our Web site: www.nw3c.org

REPORTERS: For press credentials and to arrange interviews, contact Craig Butterworth at (804)-967-6208 ext. 3355 or e-mail cbutterworth@nw3c.org.