NW3C LAUNCHES FACEBOOK AND TWITTER PAGES

RICHMOND- The National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C) has joined the millions of organizations utilizing social media services to provide information to the media and public.

Today NW3C announced the official launch of their Facebook® and Twitter™ social network sites:

The Facebook® site is: National White Collar Crime Center

The Twitter™ site is: <https://twitter.com/NW3CNews>

The Facebook® page has a variety of information including recent news releases, videos, training and event information and other details about programs and services offered by NW3C. Facebook® users can choose to “like” NW3C and receive updates as they’re posted.

NW3C’s Twitter™ page offers followers’ information on the latest scams affecting the public as well as training and event information and recent news releases.

“We are very excited to be able to stay in constant communication with our member agencies and the public,” said Don Brackman, NW3C Director. “Not only will we be able to let our member agencies know about upcoming events and training but we will also have a way to communicate with the general public about white collar crimes that impact their friends, family or themselves.”
